

NORFOLK COUNTY RECORDERS' MEETING

Saturday 19th November
Recreation Centre, John Innes Centre
Norwich Research Park, Norwich, NR4 7UH

RECORDING BIODIVERSITY THROUGH PARTNERSHIPS

Time	Event	Organiser/Speaker
12:30	Registration
	Viewing posters & tabletop Displays
13:00	Buffet lunch
13:55	Opening welcome	Pam Taylor, President, NNNS
	Objectives for the day	Mark Collins, Research Committee, NNNS
14:00	Keynote: How biological recording contributes to Broads Authority strategies & programmes	Andrea Kelly, Environment Policy Advisor, Broads Authority
	Presentations:	Chair Mark Collins, NNNS
14:30	1. Importance of recording partnerships at all scales – international to local	Sam Neal, Biodiversity Officer, NBIS
14:45	2. Biological recording in the agricultural landscape	Andy Musgrove, Ind. Biodiversity Surveyor
15:00	3. Biological recording and development planning	Rob Yaxley, Director, Wild Frontier Ecology
15:15	4. Biological recording: its importance in reserves	Tim Strudwick, Mid-Yare Reserves Site Manager, RSPB
15:30	Short Break
15:45	Presentations:	Chair Sam Neal, Biodiversity Officer, NBIS
16:00	5. Identifying & recording species through DNA barcoding	Sam Rowe, Public Engagement Officer, Earlham Institute
16:15	6. Recording discoveries in Broadland Country Park	Sarah Burston, Manager, Broadland Country Park, Broadland & South Norfolk DC
16:30	7. Recording at Buckenham Carrs – a private Norfolk estate	Mark Collins, Chair, Research Committee, NNNS
16:45	8. Concluding remarks	Tony Leech, Chair, NNNS Council
16:55	Refreshments
	Viewing posters & tabletop displays
17:30	Close

20 tabletop displays and 20 poster displays will be available.
Agenda version 5: 1st June 2022