

NNNS Field Events for 2026

Saturday 21st February 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

Lynford Arboretum led by Hans Watson.

Description: Generalist walk - keep an eye out for Hawfinches and Crossbills.

Where & Parking: Meet at the Shepherd's Baa Café on the Lynford rd. Sadly there is a charge which is annoyingly phone or card only (£2.50 for four hours) TL822943. W3W posts.massaged.costumed.

Sunday (note Evening Event) 8th March 17:45pm it will be dark.

West Runton looking for Amphibians led by Garth Coupland who is a very knowledgeable naturalist and wonderful artist.

Description: Look out for Amphibians, perhaps breeding ones. You need to have a good head torch (preferable) or hand held torch (essential)

Where & Parking: Parking around the common near the Links Hotel Sandy Lane NR 27 9QH w3w redemeeded.mole.growth.

March - Details to be added

Pensthorpe river walk - information to be decided - Dependent on flooding.

Saturday 11th April 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

A walk around Wheatfen conducted by a Wheatfen warden.

Where & Parking: Parking at Wheatfen's car park - no charge.

Surlingham. Norwich NR14 7AL. w3w purse.venue.cashiers

Saturday 25th April 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

Led by Dave Appleton. Dave is the Norfolk Recorder for Neuropters (lacewings and allied insects) and also the entomologist for the Wendling Beck Rewinding Project. Where & Parking:

Parking behind Dillington Hall
Park at Dillington Farm, NR19 2QB. Take the main entrance to the farm (at the west end of the Dillington Hall and farm buildings) at <https://maps.app.goo.gl/AtmE1SPNgtc8JWddA> (What3Words ///bleaker.incoming.tulip).

After turning in, drive into the farmyard and turn right. Drive carefully through the farmyard where you should see a tractor shed on your left. Then drive straight down the left hand track in front of you where you should see a sign to the Wendling Beck Environment Project. Continue to the gravel area where you can park, at <https://maps.app.goo.gl/6dPviBEcA94jCE8E7> (What3Words ///drum.host.procures). There is a portaloo here but no other facilities.

Saturday 9th May 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

Holkham walk to Gun Hill led by expert naturalists Nick Owen and Tim Hodge.

Description: A focus on Bees, Insects, Butterflies et al.

Where & Parking: Meet at the end of Lady Anne drive. Parking NR23.1RG www.moves.fish.node. Cost for parking £4.50 for 2 hours. Note if we can arrange free parking we will let you know.

Sunday 24th May 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

Foulden Common led by Francis Farrow, a very knowledgeable naturalist.

Description: A Spring Walk for Spring migrants and butterflies. The 139 hectare Common is a mosaic of chalk grassland and wet heathland.

Where & Parking: Limited parking along Oxborough Road and near entrance (do not block barrier). Parking TF 764000. IP26 5AL. w3w unto.attention.rephrase

Saturday 20th June 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

NNNS/NFG Led by Jo Parmenter a leading UK Botanist.

Description: A wildflower recording and learning day.

Where & Parking: Northern car park - TF68032299 (PE31 6XU)

July - Date to be added.

Norfolk Rivers Trust

Description: The NNNS will be supporting the Norfolk Rivers Trust work by supplying post project recordings - Location to be decided.

Saturday 25th July 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

Winterton walk led by expert naturalists Nick Owen and Tim Hodge.

Description: A focus on Bees, Insects, Butterflies et al.

Where & Parking: Parking. w3w bluff.tripld.donates. NR29 4AJ. Very small charge take cash.

Sunday 2nd August 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

Birds and Butterflies at Horsey led by Francis Farrow, a very knowledgeable Naturalist.

Where & Parking: Parking National Trust. Charge if not a member. I will ask if this can be waived as we are recording. NR29 4EE. w3w thundered.lofts.pose.

August Date to be added.

Norfolk Rivers Trust

Description: The NNNS will be supporting the Norfolk Rivers Trust work by supplying post project recordings - Location to be decided.

Saturday 19th September 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

Roydon Common - Led by highly skilled Botanist Bob Leaney.

Description: Introduction to wildflowers.

Where & Parking: Norfolk Wildlife Trust Roydon Common. w3w salutes.grinders.bedpread PE32 1AS. TF 698 229. Free parking.

Saturday 3rd October 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

Fungi at Bretts Wood, Thursford led by Geoff Kibby.

Description: We return to Bretts Wood with a UK Fungi Expert - Geoff Kibby.

Where & Parking: Norfolk Wildlife Trust. TF 969 327. NR21 OBB. From Fakenham take the A148 towards Holt approximately 1km after the Green Man Pub near Little snoring. Entrance is on the left just before a roadside belt of beech trees. w3w stripped.ourselves.snap

Sunday 25th October

Fungi at Litcham Common led by Geoff Kibby, UK Fungi Expert.

Where & Parking: Postcode for the village of Litcham is PE32 2NS. W3w stylist.letter.laugh. Drive a little way through Litcham, in the Dereham direction, but while just about to leave Litcham take the first turning right which is just at the start of the few allotments which are on the right.

November Event to be added.

Saturday 28th November 11am until lunch (and after lunch with AJ if you wish!)

Wicken Fen - Led by AJ Tegala, Head Warden and Author.

Description: No group entrance charge. Bring lunch there is a Café.

Where & Parking: Wicken Ely CB7 5XP. w3w overhead.forgives.desktops.

Sunday 6th December 10.30am until lunch (optional pm)

Winterton with Rob Yaxley - Lichen Recorder for Norfolk

Where & Parking: NR29 4AJ. Very small charge take cash. w3w bluff.tripled.donates.

December (Date to be confirmed)

Sweetbriar Marsh End

Description: A look back and forward at this project at the village hall followed by a walk around the Marsh.

Where & Parking: TBA